Date:

Monday, December 17, 2018

We just released an exciting new wrap-up video from our “Charting New Frontiers in Children’s Health Policy and Practice” forum on October 22, 2018. It includes interviews with attendees like PolicyLab’s leadership and Philadelphia Health Commissioner Dr. Thomas Farley, as well as beautiful footage from our plenaries and panels. Check out the three-minute video below to reflect on this celebratory event and to find out what we’re looking forward to in our next ten years.

PolicyLab researcher and physician at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia Dr. Natalie Stavas generously donated her time to film and produce this video.
