Congressional Social Determinants of Health Caucus' Request for Information: Challenges and Opportunities Related to Addressing Social Determinants of Health

Download Material

PolicyLab responded to a request for information from the U.S. Congressional Social Determinants of Health Caucus regarding challenges and opportunities related to addressing social determinants of health.

In this response, PolicyLab experts answer questions such as "what specific social determinants of health challenges have you seen to have the most impact on health?" and "how could federal programs better align to effectively address social determinants of health in a holistic way?"
