Addressing Opioid Use in Pregnant and Postpartum People: A Data Review from the 2020 Pennsylvania Family Support Needs Assessment

Download Material

As part of the PA Family Support Needs Assessment, PolicyLab assessed county-level data from eight related indicators—outlined in this brief—of substance use, the impacts of opioid use in pregnancy, and risks for people in the postpartum period to offer broad insight into opportunities for intervention to support vulnerable parents and their families.

Authors: Meredith Matone, Deanna Marshall, Jennifer Whittaker, Katherine Kellom, Stephanie Garcia, Tara Dechert, Xi Wang

Related Content

- Innovations in Evidence-based Home Visiting Intended to Engage and Support Families Impacted by Opioid Use Disorder: Three Case Studies from Pennsylvania Pilot Programs
  Article
  Jan 2023