Letter to Delaware's Department of Health and Social Services: Proposed Public Notice on Postpartum Continuous Eligibility

Download Material

PolicyLab wrote a letter responding to Delaware's Department of Health and Social Services' Proposed Public Notice on Postpartum Continuous Eligibility. In this letter, PolicyLab experts offer comments in support of the proposed amendment to the Medicaid State Plan, with a particular focus on how postpartum continuous eligibility not only improves maternal health but also that of infants and children.

Authors: Emily Gregory, Katie Lane, Meredith Matone, Diana Montoya-Williams, Doug Strane, Jennifer Whittaker, Rebecka Rosenquist

Related Content

- Interconception Preventive Care and Recurrence of Pregnancy Complications for Medicaid-insured Women
  Article
  Feb 2022