Bicameral Paid Leave Congressional Working Group: Request for Information on Expanding Access to Paid Leave

Download Material

PolicyLab responded to a request for information from the Bicameral Paid Leave Congressional Working group on expanding access to paid leave.

In their response, PolicyLab experts addressed the working group's question regarding research on the impact of paid leave on several health outcomes, sharing evidence on the potential positive health benefits related to infant mortality rates, breastfeeding initiation and continuation, and economic stability for parents of children with medical complexity.

Authors: Emma Golub, Katherine Kellom, Meredith Matone, Diana Montoya-Williams, Rebecka Rosenquist, Doug Strane, Jennifer Whittaker

Related Content

- Juggling Demands of Employment & Caring for a Child with Medical Complexity: Opportunities to Improve Public Policy
  Blog Post
  Jun 28, 2023
- The Balance of Employment and Parenting a Child with Medical Complexity
  Research at a Glance
  Jun 2023
- Employment and Leave While Parenting Children with Medical Complexity
  Article
  Jun 2023
- Policies Supportive of Breastfeeding Improve Parent Health and Productivity
  Blog Post
  Aug 01, 2022
- The Impact of Paid Family Leave in the United States on Birth Outcomes and Mortality in the First Year of Life
  Article

Apr 2020