Children's Hospital of Philadelphia PolicyLab

Competitors Unite: A Cross-Health System Collaboration to Address Community Food Insecurity

Visit Article

Collaborative Opportunities to Advance Community Health (COACH) is a cross-health system partnership organized to collectively meet federal Community Health Needs Assessment implementation planning requirements while addressing community food insecurity. Partners developed a food insecurity screening and resource referral model, screening 7,126 patients during an 18-month pilot period.

Journal:

Journal of Health Care for the Poor and Underserved
Authors: Rachel Brown, Danielle Cullen