

Mya King MD

Affiliate Trainee

Mya King, MD, is an affiliate trainee at PolicyLab at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP) and an adolescent medicine fellow in the Craig-Dalsimer Division of Adolescent Medicine at CHOP. She is also a student in the University of Pennsylvania Medical Education Masters Program (MSEd).

Her research interests include medical education, adolescent health education, curriculum development, and quality improvement.

She completed her undergraduate degree at Yale University prior to getting her MD from New York University Grossman School of Medicine. She completed her pediatrics residency at CHOP.

Mya King
MD