

PA Trying to Clamp Down on Use of Psych Drugs by Children on Medicaid

Date:

Wednesday, Feb 24, 2016

This article highlights collaborations with Pennsylvania and local behavioral health providers to improve access to behavioral health interventions and reduce prescription of antipsychotics to kids.

Source:

PhillyVoice Visit Link