

PA Trying to Clamp Down on Use of Psych Drugs by Children on Medicaid

This article highlights collaborations with Pennsylvania and local behavioral health providers to improve access to behavioral health interventions and reduce prescription of antipsychotics to kids.

Source:

PhillyVoice

Visit Link