Children's Hospital of Philadelphia
PolicyLab

Pediatricians Vary Widely in Diagnosing ADHD, Depression

PolicyLab researchers Dr. Alex Fiks and Stephanie Mayne discuss their new study that found large variation in how often U.S. pediatricians diagnose and prescribe medication for ADHD and other mental health conditions.

Source:

US News and World Report

Visit Link