Children's Hospital of Philadelphia
PolicyLab

Study: Only 23% of Youths With Hypertension Receive Diagnosis

Among U.S. children meeting clinical criteria for hypertension, few are given a diagnosis of hypertension and even fewer are being treated with medication.

Source:

AAP News

Visit Link