Children's Hospital of Philadelphia
PolicyLab

More Families with Employer-Sponsored Insurance are Needing Public Assistance

Lower income parents who have health insurance through their employers are increasingly likely to forgo family coverage and enroll their kids in Medicaid or CHIP instead, a new PolicyLab study found.

Source:

AcademyHealth Blog

Visit Link