

More Families with Employer-Sponsored Insurance are Needing Public Assistance

Date:

Friday, Feb 03, 2017

Lower income parents who have health insurance through their employers are increasingly likely to forgo family coverage and enroll their kids in Medicaid or CHIP instead, a new PolicyLab study found.

Source:

AcademyHealth Blog
Visit Link